FOR FIRST TIME TOTAL TOPS $20 MILLION

Retail sales in Campbell for second quarter shatter all previous records

Taxable retail sales in Campbell for the second quarter this year shattered all previous records for the city, going past the $20 million mark for the first time, according to the report of the State Board of Equalization.

For the second quarter, taxable retail sales (sales on which sales tax is collected) reached $20,610,000 as compared to $17,513,000 for the same quarter in 1971, an increase of more than $3 million.

Sales topped the first quarter this year by $1 million, the previous high.

Statewide, according to the report, taxable sales of $12.9 billion broke all previous sales records except for last year's Christmas quarter.

Campbell's sales in the second quarter (April, May and June) however, even surpassed last year's Christmas quarter by $1.8 million!

Campbell ranked sixth among the cities in the county in taxable sales, topping Los Gatos by $2.3 million. All the cities however, showed an increase over the previous year.

Taxable sales by cities: San Jose, $257,317,000; Santa Clara, $78,100,000; Palo Alto, $64,700,000; Mountain View, $49,982,000; Sunnyvale, $48,021,000; Campbell, $20,610,000; Los Gatos, $18,292,000; Cupertino, $17,627,000; Los Altos, $11,071,000; Milpitas, $10,451,000; Gilroy, $9,916,000; Saratoga, $4,223,000; Morgan Hill, $4,014,000; Los Altos Hills, $325,000; Monte Sereno, $15,000.

Campbell's high ranking in taxable sales among the cities in the county is especially noteworthy because there is no car agency within the city limits, a category which in most cities is the greatest single sales tax contributor.

In Los Gatos, for example, in the second quarter, the "auto dealers" category accounted for almost $9 million of that city's total sales of $18,292,000 and in Gilroy the category showed $3,709,000 out of total sales of $9,916,000.

In the second quarter, as usual, "home furnishings " was the top producer in Campbell with $3.2 million in sales (compared to $2.8 million in the previous year).

In second place was "building materials" with $2.7 million ($2.6 million in 1971).

But coming up strongly is the category of "eating and drinking places." During the second quarter, $2.3 million in taxable sales were reported as compared to $1.4 million the year before, a gain of almost $1 million.

"Food stores" accounted for $1.6 million compared to $1.4 million.

But the "drug stores" division showed the biggest gain percentagewise, going from $264,000 in the second quarter of 1971 to $648,000 in the same period this year.

"Apparel stores" also showed a big increase from $377,000 to $667,000 and "general merchandise" went from $580,000 to $704,000.

"Service stations" accounted for $323,000 in taxable sales and "packaged liquor stores" reported $642,000.

The State Board of Equalization report noted that "taking a giant step upward among retailers were the sellers of mobile homes, travel trailers and campers."

And it also explained that the unusually large gains made by restaurants were attributed to expansion of the tax base to include "take-out" food beginning Jan. 1, 1972.

It also noted, however, that candy has been exempt from the sales tax base since Jan. 1, 1972.

OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

EACH YEAR IN OCTOBER for about a four-day stretch in most city halls throughout the state, assistants are generally in charge of routine city business while the "top brass" are out of town.

Once a year city officials, councilmen and department heads assemble for the League of California Cities convention which is held in the southern part of the state one year and in the northern portion the next.

The four-day confab for the city fathers and mothers and their key personnel is considered pretty much of a MUST.

Almost every city in the state is represented at the gatherings, either in full or partial strength depending, to a considerable degree, on the budgetary conditions of the cities involved.

Most cities, however, generally manage to scrape together enough dough to have a sizeable delegation on hand.

Last week the League met in Anaheim located in Disneyland, or vice versa.

So now you know why you couldn't get in touch with the city's brass the first part of last week.

That is, if you tried.

SOME MAY CALL THE annual massive get-together of the city people once a year just a glorified junket or a gigantic free-wheeling social gathering for which the taxpayers pick up the tab.

Or did you think the city officials paid their own way to these affairs.

However, we believe that this annual assembly of city officials from all corners of the state has considerable value, if for no other reason than to compare notes with each other on common problems.

As usual, opinions vary as to whether anything fruitful was gained from this year's all-city clambake.

But isn't that true about any convention that you may have attended?

Or are you the exception?

ONE CRITICISM WE DID hear of this year's convention was that there seemed to be more political overtones present than had been usually the case in prior gatherings.

That should have been somewhat expected, inasmuch as this is an election year and there are some highly controversial issues on the ballot, in addition to candidates.

As a f'instance, take Proposition 20, the so-called coastal zone conservation act.

City officials throughout the state seem to be prêtty badly divided on the issue.

It seems to us that any official endorsement or opposition by the League of Cities would be an exercise in futility and would serve no useful purpose.

But then again we have always questioned the action of any elective body officially endorsing or opposing a candidate or any issue.

As individuals they have every right to express their views.

But when acting in their official capacity as representatives of the people we think that is another matter.

And another thing, just what value would an official endorsement have anyway, if it was done by a split vote?

It would merely show that the issue was controversial and one side or the other had managed to muster enough votes to get the "official" blessing.

Obviously our opinion is not going to keep these official blessings from rolling on and on.

We do think, however, that when endorsements etc., of that nature are made by split votes, that should also be of-

A SEMINAR FOR BABY-SITTERS

Sitters learn emergency measures in novel Fire Department course

A small infant falls from its crib and strikes its head on the floor. The young girl who is babysitting, seeing no apparent visible damage, places the child back in its crib and says nothing. The next morning it is discovered that the child had sustained permanent brain damage.

While the babysitter is preparing dinner a pan of grease suddenly catches fire on the stove. The youth grabs the pan and thrusts it under a running faucet, spreading burning grease over the kitchen and himself.

Five years ago members of the Campbell Fire Department came to the conclusion that tragedies of this sort CAN offen be avoided. Currently entering into its fourth week of activities, the Campbell Baby Sitters Seminar (in its ninth series) seeks to avert such disasters by introducing young boys and girls to a wide variety of knowledge and techniques designed to minimize the frequency of emergencies which occur in the absence of adults, and to cope with them effectively when they do unavoidably occur.

Graduation for the current series will be conducted on Monday, Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. in Kennelly Hall at St. Lucy's Church.

Although the course is designed primarily for young people ages 11 to 16, it soon becomes apparent to all in attendance that very little of the subject matter is merely "kid's stuff." There is always a healthy turnout of adults for every class session.

The course attempts to cover a variety of subjects, dividing them into weekly lessons.

At the opening ceremony and introduction of classes Fire Chief Gene Borden and Fire Engineer Jack Christian explain course content and the serious nature of the subject matter to be discussed.

At other lessons: Registered Nurse Ann Baker familiarizes class with alternatives to corporal disciplinary procedures.

Mrs. Joan Kava, R.N., and mother of three, supervises and instructs as all class members apply what they learn to a real, hungry baby.

Campbell Juvenile Officer Sgt. Frank Furtaw explains warning signs, symptoms, and procedures for dealing with prowlers, drugs, and the battered child.

EMERGENCY FIRST AID

Fireman Mike Johnson, with the help of mortician's wax and artificial blood, constructs wounds and breaks to demonstrate various injuries and treatments for everything from dog bites to compound fractures.

Rose Marie Hornbacker, consultant for Home Economics, Campbell High School District, teaches safety, nutrition, and how to prepare a meal that looks appealing to a child. Everyone cooks a meal during this class.

Pediatrician Dr. Robert Griffith discusses attacks, seizures, and childhood diseases.

Ann Maker, R.N., instructs class in emergency first aid procedures involving small children and infants.

Ten California State University, San Jose, recreation majors give instruction in games and activities designed to keep small tots occupied and out of trouble.

Mouth-to-mouth resuscitation is demonstrated by Fireman Mike Johnson along with the theory and technique involved in this life-saving pro-

Building plans, noise to concern trustees Thursday

Building plans for Hazelwood School and noise abatement measures for Moorpark School will be the main items of concern of the trustees of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District at their meeting this Thursday, Oct. 26.

The board meets at 7 p.m. in the district administration building.

Based on a report from the Division of Highways, a recommendation is expected from Superintendent Jim D'Avis as to what steps should be taken to reduce the noise level caused by the freeway near the Moorpark School.

The state has suggested that a wall could be constructed along the freeway and/or the classrooms could be soundproofed. It is anticipated that most of the costs for such measures will be borne by the state.

The board is also expected to give the go ahead signal to develop the working plans for the Hazelwood School addition, after first taking action to change the architects from Allan M. Walters to Higgins and Root. Walters had developed the original plans.

A progress report on the construction of the Quito School office is also expected. Completion date had been set for the middle of November.

The Hazelwood addition will be built from bond funds and most of the cost of the Quito addition will be from fire insurance funds.

STUDY SESSION NEXT MONDAY

Lack of interest by youth concerns city

Whether there is a need for a Youth Commission in the city could be determined at a special study session next Monday, Oct. 30, called for 7:30 p.m. at the city hall.

Concerned over the lack of interest shown by the youth in the community in city activities, the City Council has invited student representatives to meet next Monday with the four active members of the Youth Advisory Commission and the City Council.

Invitations have been sent to all student body presidents of the high schools in the area to attend next Monday's meeting in order to discuss methods in which the interest of the youth can be stimulated in city government. Similar invitations were extended to the junior high school student officers in the area.

In a related matter, the Council on Tuesday night (after press time) was scheduled to give first reading to a new city ordinance that would modify the present Youth Advisory Commission that was originally established by Council resolution. However, the Council may defer action on the ordinance until after the study session next Monday.

The ordinance, among other changes, would reduce the membership of the Youth Commission from nine to seven.

However, for the past several months, city hall observers point out, so little interest has been manifested in the activities of the Youth Advisory Commission that there are only four active members at the present time.

The four are Becky Campos, Cindy Casteel, Doug Hebard and Julie Theibult, less than a quorum under the original resolution and three short of a full membership under the proposed ordinance.

The new ordinance also specifies that at least one member of the commission must be a high school student, one a college student and one must be from junior high with the other four members to be selected at large.

The ordinance also spells out the duties and responsibilities of the commissioners more specifically than was the case under the original resolution.

COUNCIL TO HEAR REPORT MONDAY

Is there enough low income housing within city limits?

Is there enough low and moderate income housing within the city limits at the present time to meet state and federal guidelines? And how about the future?

What is expected of the City of Campbell in developing guidelines for implementing the housing element of the city's general plan relative to low and moderate income housing will be explained to the City Council next Monday, Oct. 30, at a special study session in the council chambers.

The study session, to which members of the Planning Commission and Civic Improvement Commission have been asked to attend, is scheduled for 9 p.m. following a special meeting called by the City Council with the Youth Advisory Commission (see adjoining story).

The housing program affecting the entire county in general, and Campbell in particular, will be described by representatives of the county Planning Policy Commission which has conducted a survey as directed by special state legislation.

The survey has concerned itself mainly with how the cities within the county and the county is meeting the needs for low and moderate income housing at the present time and what the objectives are for the future.

The housing survey reveals that from Jan. 1, 1970 to Jan. 1, 1972, there have been 106 units built in Campbell under the "assisted housing" program that is geared for the low and moderate income group.

The survey also shows that in many cities of the county, Los Altos, Los Gatos, Cupertino, Saratoga, Sunnyvale and Santa Clara, for example, no such housing has been constructed.

In the same period, Milpitas had 293 units; Gilroy, 279; Palo Alto, 71; Mountain View, 106 and San Jose, 3,419.

The report submits that there are 36,000 households in the county for which "assisted housing" [illegible] the present time.

According to the ratio that has been suggested for Campbell, 3.1% of the residential area of the city should be developed for low and moderate income housing.

Under the state legislation, the general plans of the cities must include the housing element following specific guidelines.

Public hearings on the housing element must precede its adoption by the City Council.

AT COMMUNITY LUNCHEON--Campbell Chamber of Commerce held its annual monthly luncheon last Thursday as part of the silver jubilee program marking the 25th anniversary of the founding of St. Lucy's as a parish.

At the head table at the luncheon below the big "25" in Kennelly Hall at St. Lucy's are, left to right, Al La Plante, CofC president; the Rev. W.H. (Ben) Gould, who gave the invocation; Mrs. Jeanette Watson, silver jubilee chairman, Fred La Cosse, of Channel 11, master of ceremonies; Father Thomas Terry, president of Santa Clara University and principal speaker; and Father Leonard Bose, a director of the CofC and pastor of St. Lucy's.

Students of St. Lucy's School provided musical entertainment at the luncheon. The week-long program of events marking the silver jubilee of St. Lucy's ended with an Oktoberfest, featuring a chicken barbecue on Sunday. (More pictures on the inside pages).

Editorial

Recommendations

In last week's editorial the 22 propositions that will be on the ballot November 7 were listed with a brief description of each.

In addition to the state measures, there will also be one county proposition entitled "Measure A."

"Measure A" is a proposed Santa Clara County ordinance submitted to the voters by the Board of Supervisors. If it receives a favorable vote on November 7, the supervisors will be directed to take the necessary action to construct a sports and entertainment arena. The ordinance leaves the supervisors to determine the most appropriate means of financing such a project through a "lease back" or "lease purchase" arrangement.

Under such financing, a non-profit corporation or a joint powers agency formed by the county and one or more cities within the county can issue tax exempt bonds to raise the funds for the construction.

The non-profit corporation leases the arena to the county and the lease payments are used to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. When the bonds are paid off, the title of the arena would vest in the county.

We think the measure deserves a "yes" vote on November 7 and we heartily endorse the proposal.

We think that an arena of 17,500 as is proposed will be beneficial to most citizens of the county.

Of course, its value as a sports center is particularly important but the center can also be used for civic events.

The annual amortization costs are estimated at $2,180,000 for the $22 million facility representing only $2 per year per person and a Stanford Research Institute study indicates that the arena could be self-supporting.

We have no hesitancy in recommending a "Yes" vote on "Measure A" on the November 7 ballot.

OTHER MEASURES

But making recommendations on the 22 state measures is a different matter.

This is the way we propose to mark our ballot:

PROPOSITION 1--For bonds to provide community college facilities...YES
PROPOSITION 2--For bonds to provide health science facilities...YES
PROPOSITION 3--Environmental pollution bond authorization...YES
PROPOSITION 4--Legislative reorganization...YES
PROPOSITION 5--School districts...increasing latitude of local boards...YES
PROPOSITION 6--Constitutional revision...YES
PROPOSITION 7--Elections and presidential primary ...YES
PROPOSITION 8--Tax exemption for anti-pollution facilities...YES
PROPOSITION 9--Bond vote for structurally unsafe school facilities...YES
PROPOSITION 10-Blind veterans tax exemption... YES
PROPOSITION 11--Right of privacy...YES
PROPOSITION 12--Disabled veterans tax exemption ...YES
PROPOSITION 13---Workmen's compensation...YES
PROPOSITION 14--Limited ad valorem property taxes (so-called Watson amendment)...NO
PROPOSITION 15---State employee salaries...NO
PROPOSITION 16--California Highway Patrol salaries ...NO
PROPOSITION 17--Death penalty...YES
PROPOSITION 18--Obscenity legislation...NO
PROPOSITION 19--Marijuana...NO
PROPOSITION 20--Coastal zone conservation act... YES
PROPOSITION 21--Assignment of students to schools ...YES
PROPOSITION 22--Agriculture labor relations...YES

We have not attempted to explain in this editorial the basis or the arguments that were used in arriving at the above recommendations.

The recommendations are made from our own conclusions and do not follow any set pattern.

Interestingly enough, our recommendations, for example, are not the same as those made by the Farm Bureau.

Neither do they follow those of the more liberal elements in the state.

And the conservatives can also find fault with them.

There is no question but Proposition 14, as a case in point, has many proponents. We oppose it.

And Proposition 20 has much bitter opposition. And we favor it.

We say "yes" on Proposition 17, the death penalty measure, and there is much opposition to such a stand.

We say "yes" in the case of 21, the anti-bussing measure, and 22, that regulates labor relation activities among the farm workers.

But we maintain that all of us have a right to our opinions and we will always defend our right to express them.

And that's what our recommendations are.

Just opinions.

For example, instead of merely stating that "the City Council has endorsed" (or opposed), it should read "The City Council by a 3-2 vote has endorsed" (or opposed).

But don't hold your breath for that to happen.

AN INTERESTING COINcidence did occur as an aftermath, sort of, of the League of Cities convention.

After leaving the convention, Police Chief Don Burr of Campbell was tooling along Highway 5, that ribbon of asphalt through California's wide open space.

(Of course, he must have been observing the speed laws. Why did you ask? Oh, you have traveled Highway 5, too.)

Anyway in one of the most barren spots, Don was waved down by a motorist whose car had apparently given out.

The stranded motorist turned out to be someone who was also on the way home from the convention when the fuel pump on his car gave out. (You might say that wherever one is on Highway 5, it's a long way between gas stations).

The greeting was "Hi Chief"....

In duplicate.

The stranded motorist was Police Chief Hal Johnson of Los Gatos.

Don and his group made room for Los Gatos chief's contingent, and dropped them off in Los Gatos, after stopping to make arrangements to get the car fixed.

Who said that the police are never around when one needs them?

There are two police chiefs in the area now who can prove that is not true by their own personal experience.

Now, if you are talking about odds...

ORDINARILY THIS COLumn is out of the way before the weekend starts.

We try to get it on the hook on Friday and generally are fairly successful in our objective unless interrupted by a good reason.

This week, however, it is being hammered out on Saturday.

Friday was sort of tied up, one might say.

With our little Dorothy we attended our first world series game with Homer and Kathryn Hyde.

The weather was great, and the game was exciting, even if Oakland didn't win.

It was a great spectacle and we thoroughly relished every minute of it.

Quite a contrast to the game on Saturday in Cincinatti that we saw on the tube prior to struggling with this column.

Our Saturday, of course, was fouled up somewhat because of the Friday excursion to the coliseum in Oakland.

But not as much as was the case for the Oakland ball club.

AN ANONYMOUS NOTE to us recently suggested that the back field of Campbell High bordering on Latimer was a mess. The writer submitted that it was in such bad shape that it was difficult to walk along the sidewalk.

Ordinarily we don't pay any attention to these unsigned missives and we didn't this time, except that shortly we had occasion to go by the spot the writer had referred to.

In our opinion, the writer in her unsigned note to us had grossly exaggerated the situation and was being totally unfair in her accusation.

Maybe the area could stand cleaning up a little but that could be true in hundreds of other spots in town.

It was quite obvious why the writer refused to sign the note to us.

But, as we have said so many times, we have a real hangup on these anonymous letter writers anyway, no matter how "worthy" may be their intentions.

And, in a case such as this when the writer attempts to exaggerate a situation, our hangup becomes even more pronounced.

ON THE OTHER HAND, a brief letter to us this week from Gordon Abbott raises the question of the status of the litigation that is pending against the Campbell Union (elementary) School Distirct.

Abbott suggests that the taxpayers of the district are deserving of more information than the brief mention that was made in a recent issue of The Campbell Press stating that "unconfirmed sources" had indicated that the Neal Royer versus the Campbell Union (elementary) School District had been scheduled for trial on Jan. 22, 1973.

Now, while we agree with Gordon's contention that results of the trial could possibly affect us all, we are not sure just exactly how The Press can get any sort of status report on the situation, if the trustees and/or their attorneys see fit not to comment.

Of course, we would all like to know what is going to happen legally and what steps are now being taken in the litigation, as far as the school district is concerned.

It is a serious matter.

And the trustees have every right to be concerned.

But if they aren't talking, we guess we all must wait until next January for the trial.

The date of which is now pretty well "confirmed."

cedure. All class members are required to successfully perform techniques on all three of the Fire Department's training manikins.

Fire Chief Gene Borden, recognized as one of the leading experts on fire prevention in America, teaches home fire safety and fire escape planning.

GRADUATION

Many Campbell city officials and school officials participate in the graduation services. A reception for graduates, parents, and friends has followed each session.

Most of the success of the Baby Sitters Seminar can be attributed to the enthusiasm of the professional people who continually give of their time and efforts to insure the success of the program, according to Gene Borden, fire chief.

News of the Seminar has been so widespread that requests for copies of the course description and outline have poured in from 37 states and five foreign countries.

The Fire Department will frequently receive a call from the parents of an asthmatic child or a child requiring special care, requesting the name of a local babysitter who has completed the course.

ENJOYED BY MANY

This particular session of the seminar has as two of its most enthusiastic participants, Alice and Mollie Zahgotah. These sisters are American Indians, ages 12 and 13, who live during the school year with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Standley and their children, Ross and Dorthelda, of 1323 Gay Ave., Campbell. Dorthelda, age 13, is also enrolled in the seminar.

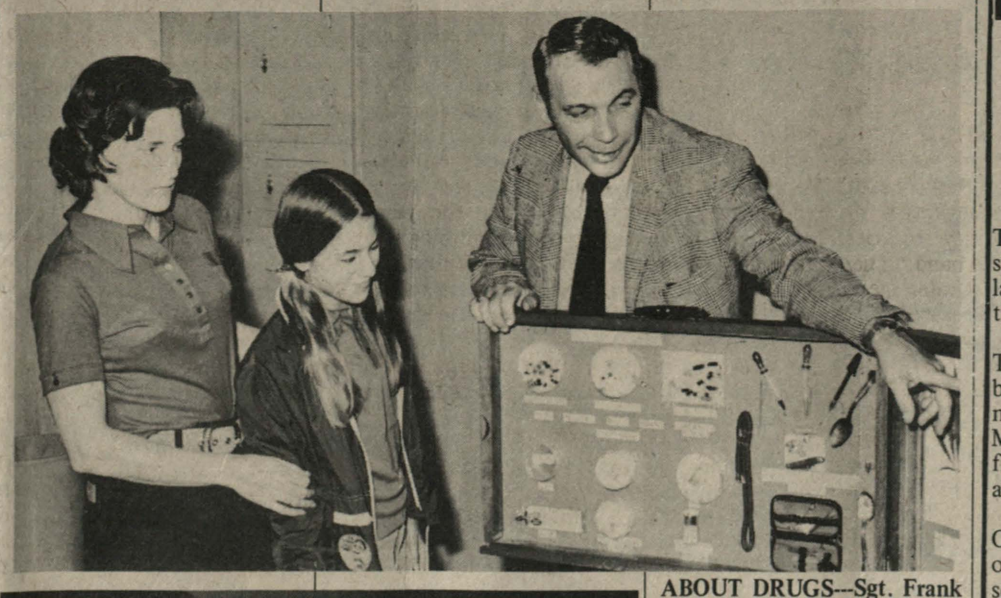
The Zahgotah sisters spend the summers living with their real family on the Apache reservation at White River, Arizona. Their father, who works in a logging mill in White River, is proud to see his oldest girls provided with the opportunity to receive a good education and a familiarity with two cultures as opposed to just one.

Both Mollie and Alice regard their participation in the Baby Sitters Seminar as a beneficial and exciting experience. Coming from a family of nine children, the girls find their newly acquired skills in first aid, baby care, and cooking to be especially valuable.

The question which most often arises regarding the Campbell Baby Sitters Seminar, is: just exactly what does the fire service have to do with baby sitting?

Engineer Jack Christian, director of the Seminar, expresses the correlation in a nutshell: "When a house catches fire or a child drinks pesticide, it's the fireman who sees the terrible results. Such a tragedy is often due to a child learning by the trial and error process.

"The fire department has brought together professionals from many fields in the hopes that their experience can take some of the errors out of the trial and error process."



ABOUT DRUGS---Sgt. Frank Furtaw of the Campbell Police Department visits a baby sitting seminar conducted by the Campbell Fire Department and explains procedures for dealing with drugs to students enrolled in the program. Here a mother and her daughter take a close-up look at a display after a classroom lesson.

OPEN WIDE --- Young Ken Podgorsek shows that he, too, knows child care, and carefully offers a spoonful of food to the baby held by Mrs. Joan Kava at a baby-sitters seminar. Youngsters are shown proper infant care during the ten-week series which includes lessons on diet, health, first aid, food preparation and discipline.

WHAT FUN---These two students in the baby-sitters seminar are particularly enthusiastic. Alice and Mollie Zahgotah from White River, Arizona, are currently living with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Standley of Campbell to attend school. The girls, who are American Indians, spend their summers with their real family on the Apache reservation at White River. Mrs. Joan Kava instructs them on infant care.

MARCHING TO GLORY

Everybody loves a parade, right? Well, almost everybody. And no exception is Campbell's marching Buc Band who marched along with over thirty other bands for the Invitational High School Band Review in Santa Cruz last Saturday.

The first bands stepped off around noon from downtown Santa Cruz. Through the center of town they went, and arrived after a one and one sixth of a mile hike at the Boardwalk about 12:40. And the bands just coming and coming.

After a very thorough military inspection by the judges, the Buc band stepped off to the tune of "E Pluribus Unum", a march led by our drum major, Bill Branson.

Barbara Scoff, the assistant drum major, showed her versatility by performing with the band on her Alto sax.

Under the watchful eye of Campbell's band director, Clarence Savage, it seemed as if they had a pretty good chance to bag at least second or third prize in their division.

At this writing, it is not known how they placed at the awards assembly afterwards, but when I spoke to Mr. Savage before the parade he seemed extremely hopeful for their success.

Besides – first, second, and third place trophies for each category of marchers, there is a sweepstakes award for best all around performance. The bands are judged on inspection requirements, marching, and playing.

ATTRACTIVE ATHLETES

I spoke with Susan Harrison, a P.E. teacher at Campbell, and head of the Girls Sports organization. I went to her because it seems that they are always doing twice as much as anybody else, with practically no recognition. So here's what's going on in regard to sports for the fair sex.

Girls Sports offer eight sports throughout the year. This quarter is swimming and tennis. Next comes basketball and hockey (now there's a fun sport to watch--hockey!!), followed by volleyball, gymnastics, badminton and softball. Track is also being considered.

The women power behind all of this are those in the sixth period girls sports period. With close to 150 hardy girls in the ranks, it would seem to point to a shift in muscle power, from men to women (have you seen our football team lately?), or at least from the stereotypes I'm used to.

The girls compete with other schools of the Associated Girls Athletic League, which includes all of the schools in the CUHD, plus Los Gatos and Saratoga High Schools.

The big meet for swimming and tennis will be the "finals" on Nov. 4 and 8 where trophies will be awarded.

I was told by Ms. Harrison that the swimming team is making excellent progress, and scored a major victory over Blackford at the swim meet held there a week or so ago. There is optimism toward further success.

Tennis also is making strides. They are running at about a 50/50 record, but could be dynamite if the right circumstance presents itself.

Now here's a plug for a good cause--remember that March of Dimes Walkathon last spring? Well, Campbell swimmers will be holding a "swimathon" on Nov. 11 and includes the boys as well as the girls swim team and the Campbell Swim Club.

This involves swimming back and forth across the pool 200 times or two hours without a break!!! Do you have any idea what that involves? I have trouble doing ten laps !

And incredibly, all they ask for their labors is a sponsor from YOU at maybe, two or three or four cents a lap. It's really not so bad when you consider how well they are earning it. The money will be used to buy new lane lines for the pool.

QUIZ KIDS?

I also visited a club that is new to Campbell High this year, affectionately called The Math Club (original, huh?). All kidding aside, as I walked into the room that every day has me dying a thousand deaths in Algebra II, I found a surprisingly different atmosphere.

No glasses-laden eggheads working calculus on the blackboard, no solemn discussions of the esthetic values of analytic geometry, and in fact, it almost struck me as being kind of fun (horrors!).

The purpose of this club is to do things they don't get to do in a regular math class, and develop more interest in mathematics among the students. I'll say. It looked like one great big party to me.

Between the hilarity and the traveling salesman number games, the group elected Julie Fukuda as president, Kirk Adams as the vice-president (I wonder why the group needs any officers at all. I mean, for ten people?), and Nancy Hume as secretary-treasurer.

Ann Bryant acts as the teacher/advisor for the group, and says that their group will be taking field trips, and learning to operate the computer in room 56. The club really isn't as bad as the name makes it out to be. You might drop by any Tuesday the second half of lunch and try it out. You might even find you like it.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

On Wednesday at 2:30 the fantastic girls swim team I mentioned earlier is playing against Prospect at Camden.

On Thursday at the same time our feminine tennis tigers are also playing Prospect; also C and D basketball at Branham, and cross country against Blackford at Camden.

Friday at 6 p.m. our glorious frosh-soph football will play against Saratoga at Los Gatos. And at eight, our struggling varsity team, same place, same school, is playing. With our varsity football team improving with every game, it might be possible to win this one. So good luck Bucs!

Tuesday of next week at 2:30 there is a girl's tennis game with Del Mar (here). C and D basketball plays an hour later against Westmont (here). And that's the week.

WALKING THE PLANK

I realize that to the schools, money is very important. For without money the schools would not be able to do the difficult job of teaching that they do. But things are getting to the point where the schools need money so badly, they will go to almost any length to get it. Thus, the ten minute roll.

For you see, in order to get their money, the school must have written records of every student in or out of their classes, and if they are absent, they must have the reason why. When there are more than about 100 students, the matter gets complicated. With 1500 students, the matter gets ridiculous.

Okay, so let them take roll in the morning and after lunch, but why this bit about attendance every period, approved tardies, considered tardies, and truant tardies, excuses, and hall passes. What's next? Bed checks? I'm not putting all the blame on the school, after all, there are state laws which must be met, but in any given fifty minute period, it takes from five to ten minutes of class time to take role, check the lists, and mark tardies.

Look--the school deserves its money, but attendance wastes approximately two hours and a half per week or more. That's 90 hours a year, or two weeks and almost 5% of our total school year wasted on money grubbing.

C'mon, there has got to be a better way. Roll is necessary, yes, but we shouldn't let it defeat its purpose. The money received is for the schools--to teach.

Next week in Walking the Plank I will be presenting some alternatives to our present situation. Meanwhile, you think about it, too.

"They've never stopped singing"

Richard and Jo Ann Vine of Campbell are currently playing supporting roles in the Phoenix Productions presentation of "Where's Charley?"

The Frank Loesser musical will play its final weekend performances this weekend in the Los Gatos Prentiss Brown Auditorium. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Vine made her debut with the San Francisco Opera Company in "Tales of Hoffman." She followed that role in "Merry Widow", "Song of Norway", "Three Wishes for Jamie", "The Great Waltz", "Call Me Madam", "Plain and Fancy", and finally "Kismet."

During this stint with the Los Angeles and San Francisco Civic Light Opera Company she performed with such stars as John Raitt, Alexis Smith, Elaine Stritch, and Alfred Drake.

She also appeared on national television of the Arthur Godfrey Show and the Steve Allen "Tonight" show. She met her husband while playing in "Three Wishes" with John Raitt.

Vine worked with the Los Angeles and San Francisco Civic Light Opera Company in "Louisiana Hayride", "Song of Norway", "Chocolate Soldier", "Rose Marie", "Great Waltz", "Three Wishes for Jamie", "Carousel", and "Kismet."

He had his own radio show while in Los Angeles called "Rehearsal Time." He and Jo Ann were in the original company of "Kismet." Jo Ann acted as understudy to the leading role and performed that role on Broadway over forty times.

Locally they were cast in "Paint Your Wagon" and "Kiss Me Kate" for the Saratoga Drama Group. Vine also played a major role in "The Student Prince" for West Valley Light Opera.

"Charley" is directed by Joseph Glasner and produced by Marian Chapman. For ticket information, call 247-1645 or 378-6322.

PAUL & MS. MAUREEN

(Macierz) (Hillyard)

Ms.: Paul, what are those black and white things at the end of your legs?

Paul: Don't you keep up with the nostalgia craze--the 50's are the "in" thing.

Ms: Of course, I'm up on it.

Paul: Green socks and brown pants don't make it.

Ms: Well, what are those things?

Paul: These "things" are saddle shoes.

Ms: With those big feet of yours they could pass for police cars.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Warrior "Men" have been placing high in all their meets this year.

Spurred on to victory by coach Bill "Bull" Hotchkiss, cross country stars Rich McCandless, Jeff Werner, Rufus Garcia have proven to be top finishers in every meet.

Paul: Hey, listen to this cool record by Bill Haley and the Comets.

Ms: Ohmigod! Not "Rock Around the Clock"!

Paul: Wop bob a looa ba lop bam boom! I got it made in the shade.

Ms: What could be next? A hoola-hoop contest?

UPCOMING EVENTS

Varsity and frosh-soph gridmen attack Los Gatos this Thursday and Friday.

Girl Racketeers take on Blackford and Leigh the 26th and 31st respectively.

Opening night for this year's all-school musical, "West Side Story", will be November 16th.

Happy Hallowe'en.

Paul: Ta-da! Maureen, where are you?

Ms: Here I am! How do I look? Close your mouth and quit gaping.

Paul: It's just that I've never seen anybody wear hot pink lipstick and black sequins at three in the afternoon before.

Ms: It's the Marilyn Monroe look.

FLAG GIRLS

This year's Flag Girls are the best ever--they have already twirled at two rallys and all the games.

They are Rosie Heinen, Wanda Lehman, Richelle Littleton, Jane Yegge, Robin Rosendale, and head Patti Tounger. Their advisor is Pat Brach.

Ms: Paul, there's a fifties film festival going on! Let's get the Edsel...

Paul: It has a leaky radiator, a leaky tire, a broken defroster...

Ms: When you learn how to drive, fine. Let's get the gang in the Edsel and go to the movies!

MOVIE ON CAMPUS

Members of the Westmont Varsity Basketball and Football teams will be seen in a new movie "Drug Abuse and Athletics."

Also starring will be members of the San Francisco 49ers Football team.

Producer is Haskell Bowen, director of Physical Education and Soph-Science and the Drug Abuse Programs in the district. He has made two movies and written two books.

The movie will be out December 2.

INTRAMURALS

Westmont's top Intramural activities have already started, led by faculty members Cathy Bean, Rich Perry, and Ron Wilkens.

The weekly coed sports are volleyball, soccer, gymnastics and basketball.

For all you Women's Libbers, there's a possibility of Powder Puff Football.

Ms: What are you doing now?

Paul: I'm practicing the "jitterbug."

Ms: You look idiotic. You don't have any music.

Paul: I've got the tune in my head. It's a song that the band is playing at this Friday's game called "Blues N' Brass."

Ms: Little things for little minds.

EGO CORNER

This week's Ego Corner is presented to the Mighty Westmont Warrior Marching Band. One hundred and twelve of Westmont's finest, under the direction of Gary "Czar" Kenyon.

Ms: Now let me see if I've got this nostalgia thing right. First it was the 20's and 30's, then it was the 40's, now it's the 50's. The 60's are coming up, right?

Paul: Right. Where are you going?

Ms: I'll see you later. I've got to go dig up my go-go boots.

AT THE WIND-UP---On Sunday, a barbecue-fiesta (Oktoberfest) climaxed a week-long series of events marking the silver jubilee of St. Lucy's.

A chicken barbecue, under the co-chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Goodman, was one of the main features of Sunday afternoon. The Goodman's report that 1026 portions of chicken were served during the afternoon. (In the lower right photo Councilman Ralph Doetsch takes his turn at the barbecue pit.)

The musical group, "The Circuit," composed of 14-year-olds and younger, (upper left) provided some of the entertainment during the afternoon.

In the top right photo, Mrs. Lorraine Doetsch, raffle chairman, Gene Toomey, jubilee finance chairman, Father Bose and Mrs. Watson, stand by the big drum from which winning numbers were drawn by Dennis Tripoli, who can also be seen in the picture. The main prize was a 1973 "Pinto."

The Music Man orchestra forms

The San Jose Children's Musical Theater show orchestra to accompany the group's production of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man," scheduled for Jan. 12 and 13, Feb. 3 and 10, is now being formed.

All standard orchestral instruments are needed, including strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion. In addition, an E flat clarinet, bass clarinet, soprano and bass saxophone are needed, as the original Broadway orchestration will be used.

The SJCMT production, directed by John P. Healy, Jr. will feature a chorus of over 180 young people from 7-21 years on stage during such visually spectacular production numbers as "76 Trombones", "Iowa Stubborn", and "The Wells Fargo Wagon."

Willson's "The Music Man" is a favorite among show musicians because of its full orchestration and brassy song and dance routines.

Musical director for this production will be Patricia Healy, a graduate of the College of Notre Dame and a professional violinist. Miss Healy is currently teaching orchestra at San Mateo High School.

Rehearsals will be held at the SJCMT rehearsal hall at 222 So. Second St., in San Jose on Saturday afternoons, from 3:30–6 p.m. beginning this Saturday, Oct. 28. All interested musicians are encouraged to attend or call the SJCMT office at 265-1490.

REVIEW

"Carousel" opens -one more time around

by Steve Rockwell

"Carousel" rolled into the Saratoga Civic Center Friday night as the opening production for West Valley Light Opera Association's new season.

Most everyone has seen this Rodgers and Hammerstein perennial favorite, in fact I have seen it three times in the past five months; therefore, I am bound to make comparisons.

In this particular rendition, the orchestra under the direction of Philip Garay and the group ensemble directed by Stella Wood take the laurels. Both seemed well rehearsed and gave the show a strong sound.

The ensemble seemed, however, too large for the stage and presented a crowded look for this theater. The people, numbering seventy-two, were impossible to move and thus the musical showstoppers, "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" and the Prologue, "The Carousel Waltz" lost their usual audience appeal.

The show as a whole is slowly paced which may be the fault of the vehicle rather than the director Armand Plato, but the audience did not come alive until the exciting "Blow High, Blow Low" number well choreographed by Barbara Valente and featuring two scene stealers: Cathy Spielberger and Jeff Risk of Campbell. Anytime these two are on stage, the show was given a needed lift.

The two leading roles were handled by Pat Devlin as Billy Bigelow and Kathy Bullock as Julie Jordan. Both sing well, but their acting was not totally convincing.

Devlin, especially, seems to try too hard; in his relaxed moments, he became real and believable. Miss Bullock, in her best role to date, needed tighter direction.

Fay Drummond as Carrie and Bill Cowl as Mr. Snow need to settle into their characters and enjoy the show. There was unnecessary tenseness about them on opening night, which may improve during the twelve performance run.

In fact, it is Pat McCaughey as Nettie Fowler, who brought a bright note to this production. Her broad smile and warm personality made the stage radiate with charm. Although she does not possess a large voice, it has a nice quality and is true to its range.

J. Francis Reso lacked the sneaky slimy look of Jigger, both in costume and make-up. He is much too clean cut and has a starched look of honesty.

Ted Weaver appeared as both the Starkeeper and Doctor Sledon, the later character was much more real. His old man Starkeeper came off too cartoonish.

Louise, the daughter of Billy and Julie, was enacted by Jeannie Traina, a veteran of Campbell High productions. She had the total emotional quality of her role and moves well.

The costumes by Jo Plato, the sets by Ed Howie, and the lighting by Joseph Salamone were not memorable, but not objectionable. Although I question the use of blue jeans and rubber bands on some of the ensemble.

Also some of the hairstyles were strange for 1873. Obviously, these were details that went unnoticed by the director.

If "Carousel" is one of your favorite musicals, then you will enjoy this production; otherwise, it might be an experience that you can pass by. One leaves the theater with a feeling of indifference as to what he has seen. However, the chorus and orchestra are extra special.

The show will be repeated through November 18, on weekends with special Sunday matinees scheduled for November 5 and 12. For further information, call 356-6410.

CAST forms youth orchestra

The Campbell Civic Actors Seminare Theater (CAST) has announced the formation of a theater orchestra to accompany future musical productions.

The new group will be known as the Campbell Civic Youth Orchestra and is open to area students in junior and senior high school who are enrolled in any school music program. Auditions will be conducted for the new orchestra Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 25 and 26, and Nov. 8 and 9 at 7 p.m. in the music building of Branham High School, 1570 Branham Ln.

Students who are not currently enrolled in a school music program will also be considered in the event additional openings occur.

Musical conductor for the orchestra will be James Dyer, Campbell Union High School district music teacher, who will also serve as associate director for the theatrical group.

The orchestra is the second of several different groups sponsored by the theater group. Concerts by the orchestra are tentatively planned for fall and spring.

A registration fee ($5) will be collected and those auditioning will be asked to play a short solo, a sight reading and any of the twelve major scales.

String and woodwind auditions are Wednesdays and brass and percussions on Thursday evenings from 7:15 to 8:45 p.m. at the high school, beginning Nov. 16.

Interested musicians should contact Dyer at 268-2724 or 265-8440 for information.

Young nature lovers have fall outings

The fall program for the Youth Science Institute, headquartered in Alum Rock Park in San Jose, has been announced by Fred Avilez, executive director.

Backpacking and all-day hiking trips spotlight Youth Science Institute's early fall Big Trip program for young adventurers. Trips, planned for Alum Rock Park, Coe State Park, and Los Padres National Forest, are supervised by trained naturalists and experienced hikers who encourage the young adventurer to discover the wonders of nature and to develop self-reliance in the out-of-doors.

Two days in Alum Rock Park are slated to give eight-year-olds and older an opportunity to discover Mother Nature's wonders close to home and to learn why it is known that the park was an ancient ocean beach.

For 10-year-olds and older who are new to backpacking, Coe State Park has been selected as an ideal starting point and the best of parks for budding naturalists.

Los Padres National Forest is an opportunity for 12-year-olds and older to try a longer trip and to explore the wonders of the coast range in the fall. For dates and details call Youth Science Institute at 258-4322 or 258-7382.

Junior high conference program initiated at Campbell School

Campbell Elementary School, 295 Cherry Ln., is initiating a plan this fall for a conferencing night with parents of seventh and eighth grade students.

The plan is designed to make it easier for parents to confer with any of the six teachers working with each child.

On Wednesday, Nov. 1, parents will be invited to attend a 7 p.m. meeting at the school where they will meet first with homeroom teachers who will give them student progress report forms, a packet from each teacher and answer general questions about the school and the student's daily program.

At 7:30 the teachers will adjourn to the cafeteria where they will be identified so that parents may meet and talk with them.

On hand, too, will be counselors who will be available to the parents and who will make appointments for parents wishing longer conferences.

Refreshments will be provided for waiting parents by the boys' and girls' cooking classes.

TREE PLANTING—Two palm trees were planted on Tuesday of the silver jubilee week at St. Lucy's, representing the future. Among those taking part in the ceremony were, left to right, Father Henri Boisvert, associate pastor of St. Lucy's; Jeff Lee, Richard Grim, Joe Watson and Valerie and Mark Auger.

The program will be Native Flora with slides. It will be presented by Mr. Richard Hildreth, director of the Saratoga Horticulture Foundation.

Hostesses for the meeting will be the member club presidents. Guests are welcomed.

West Valley Sports

by Dick Sparrer

VIKES OF OLD

They looked like the Vikings of old last Saturday afternoon at Leigh High School when the West Valley College footballers broke out of a four game losing streak to stomp Solano 40-0 in Camino Norte Conference action.

The win jumped the Viking's league ledger to 1-1, a loss to Contra Costa marring the slate. Viking coach John Nicholas still is confident but realizes that the WVC squad faces a real test this weekend.

West Valley hits the road Saturday for a 2 p.m. battle in Santa Rosa. The Bear Cubs are also 1-1 and the game will be their homecoming.

"It's a must game for both schools," said Nicholas looking ahead to Saturday. "But we're in a little better position than they are. The team that beat us had already been beaten and the team that beat them hasn't. If we win all the rest of our games we'll win the league championship. But if they win all the rest of their games, and we beat DeAnza, they'll still be second."

"It sure will be one fine football game Saturday, though," promised the coach. "I just hope we get people to continue to play football and not let down."

The Vikings had a lot of people playing football last weekend when they tromped over the Falcons 40-0. Gerald Galloway (Branham) was the star of the day, returning a punt 80 yards for West Valley's second touchdown of the day and hauling in a Joe Alvarez (Campbell) pass for 41 yards and a td for Valley's third score.

Mike Oliver (Leigh), strong safety, Doug Gerdwagon (Leigh), middle linebacker, Charlie Prior (Washington), halfback, and Bruce Batinich (Blackford), halfback turned in strong defensive shows.

Prior led the defensive effort on the afternoon. The halfback intercepted one pass but fumbled on his run giving Solano the football back.

But he picked off another Falcon pass in the fourth quarter and romped 36 yards to the endzone.

Mike Franz (Leigh) started the Vikes on their way in the first period by hauling in a 24 yard Alvarez pass for six points. Dave Gee (Los Gatos) booted the extra point, one of four for him on the afternoon.

Roger Cantrell (Branham), Dave Fuller (Branham) and Gary Mrdutt (Leigh) were cited for their play on the offensive side of the scrimmage line. "It was by far Cantrell's best game of the season," said Nicholas.

Mitch Pieracci (Branham) and Pete Triandos (Leigh) scored the other two Viking touchdowns in the game. Pieracci tallied on a three yard run and Triandos went two yards for his.

HARRIERS ROMP

A pair of wins in a double dual cross country meet last week extended West Valley College's dual meet victory string to 21 straight. And chances of stretching that string to 23 in a row looked darn good as the Vikes visit Skyline College to meet Canada and Contra Costa.

The Vikings shut-out both DeAnza and Alameda last week 15-50. In order to record a shut-out, the first five men across the line would have to have been wearing orange and blue. Well, WVC made sure of the win by nabbing the first 13 places and 15 of the top 17.

Saturday the Vikes ended third at the big Santa Maria Invitational in southern California. Grossmont College won the event with 26 points, followed by San Mateo at 72, West Valley 88 and San Jose City College 103.

Schaecher picked up an individual eighth with Haniger 17th, Hopp 19th, Finochic 21st, Morris 23rd, Hume 24th and Tello 37th.

POLO–FIVE IN A ROW!

A pair of home games this week will give the West Valley College water-poloists a chance to extend on their current five game win streak and pop over the .500 mark for the first time in weeks. The Vikings take an 8-8 season ledger into action at home.

Contra Costa will visit the Viking pool Friday at 3:30 p.m. for a Camino Norte Conference battle. WVC is 1-0 in the CNC. And Saturday Cabrillo will visit Saratoga for a 10:30 a.m. clash. The Seahawks have beaten the Vikes once this year.

The Vikes scored two big wins last week, whipping CNC foe Solano 14-6 and popping Chabot 11-5.

"Our guys played beautifully," exclaimed Nyquist after the Solano game. "We're getting some scoring balance now but still we're getting that one big quarter."

The Vikes scored seven goals in the second period to secure the victory. Raul Navarro (Buchser) tallied seven in the win for the Vikes but was also singled out for his defensive play by the coach. Mike Coffee (Buchser) bagged five and Kevin Carver (Buchser) and Greg Trapp (Saratoga) scored one each.

Navarro again proved the top Viking scorer in their 11-5 win over Chabot. Navarro tallied six to lead the effort. Carver threw in two, Tom Riley (Westmont) two and McFarland one.

SOCCERMEN WIN, LOSE

A win over Diablo Valley College early last week lifted the West Valley College soccer team up another rung on the ladder toward the Northern California tournament but they were knocked down a step or two a few days later, falling to Canada 2-0 in Camino Norte Conference action.

"We had two or three real good chances to score in the first half and one good chance in the second," said coach Dick Schwendinger. A scramble in front of the Canada goal with only blue shirts in sight ended fruitless in the first half.

Guy Hoosay (Leigh) got off a strong shot on the goal in the second but the Colt goalie made a "tremendous save," according to Schwendinger.

The coach cited Steve Thompson (Saratoga), a fullback, and Ron Johnson (Branham), a halfback, for "excellent" play in the game. "I just can't say enough about how good Johnson has played all season."

In the win against DVC, the Vikes had to fight back after trailing 1-0 to win 3-1 Johnson, Bob Sanchez (Branham) and Jim Fox (Buchser) all scored on strong shots from 25 yards out or more.

Films, food at football benefit

Parents from the West Valley Touchdown Club will man the kitchen at the Straw Hat Pizza Palace, 1400 Campbell Ave., on Wednesday, Oct. 25, from 6 to 10 p.m.

The occasion is a "Youth Night" benefiting boys age 10-14 who are playing Pop Warner football in the greater Campbell area.

West Valley Touchdown Club's three teams, the Red, Gold, and Green Berets, will be featured in game films to be shown periodically throughout the evening. Adding to the entertainment will be live music and a special sing-along.

Parents and players from neighboring youth football clubs, as well as the general public, are cordially invited to share the evening with the Berets and help support the youth football program in the community.

PSYCHOLOGIST RETURNS

Al Gustafson, school psychologist for the Campbell Elementary School District recently attended an advisory meeting of the California Association of School Psychologists and Psychometrists (CASPP) in Sacramento.

Psychologist Gustafson along with 26 of his colleagues in school psychology, guidance and pupil services met to discuss current school problems and to discuss plans for the up-coming CASPP State Convention in Fresno in April 1973.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

Oakland may have its Championship "A's" but Campbell has two Champions in a different sport, auto racing. We've already mentioned Vern Willhoite's NASCAR State Sportman's title but Howard Kaeding fought to the wire to get his second straight NASCAR Super Modified title.

Howard was just 19 points ahead of Everett Edlund of Caruthers as they went into the last points race of the season. The event was rained out. Since there was no rain date, this closed the season and gave Howard the title.

San Francisco's Nick Rescino had already cinched the San Jose Speedway title with Kaeding in the number two spot. Rescino finished fifth in the state point standings.

GOLDEN STATE CLASSIC

The second annual Golden State Classic will roll through Northern California starting next week. The seven race series will kick-off Saturday night, November 4 at All-American Speedway in Roseville moving down here to San Jose Speedway for a 2 p.m. go on Sunday, November 5.

They take a second shot at San Jose Speedway on Nov. 11. Other stops on the tour are Ukiah (Nov. 6), Madera Raceway (Nov. 8), Stockton Speedway (Nov. 10) and Marysville (Nov. 12). Competition is for super modifieds, caged sprinters and offset roadsters.

The scope of this event can be seen by taking a look at some of the entries already in. From Greenfield, Tennessee comes Chuck Amati, this year's Nebraska State Fair Sprint Car Champion and second place finisher in the International Motor Contest Association's sprint car standings.

Others entered are Norm Ellefson of Spokane, Wash., Herman Wise of Atlanta, Ga., Hugh Richards of Mobile, Ala., Bob Young of San Antonio and John Albrechtsen of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

DART SEASON

The first three weeks of the Fall-Winter season of the Northern California Darts Assn. have been completed and the biggest lead exists in the El Camino League where both "A" and "B" division leaders are in front by five games. Not a commanding lead at this point. Scarlet LaRue II has 26 wins to Black Watch I's 21 in the "A" division. These two teams play tonight. In the "B" division Or Whatever II leads Winchester Street Congregation III 25-20.

The two South Bay League divisions have a little tighter race. Scarlet La Rue I has only a three game lead over the Garret in the "A" division (28-25) while Neighborhood Tavern I is two games ahead of Lancashire Lad III in the "B" division (26-24).

Letters to the Editor

LEGAL STATUS?

Dear George:

In the September 27 edition of the Campbell Press on page 2 it was stated that the Campbell Press had learned via unconfirmed sources that the Royer vs Campbell Union (elementary) School District suit had been scheduled for trial on January 22. Is this information correct?

Hopefully the Campbell Press will seek a report to the citizens of our school district from the CUSD officials on the status of this important litigation. The results of this trial could affect us all.

Sincerely,
Gordon Abbott

RALLY

During second period, Friday, Oct. 13, the spirit commission put on the second rally of the year entitled, "The Twelve Years of School."

Sung to the tune of "The Twelve Days of Christmas", each year was acted out with a little skit. Following this performance the "Del Mar Pillow People" did a dance for the student body. Next the "Del Mar Song Guys" did a routine.

After the routine, two of the Song Guys were crowned "King". Senior Steve Hunt was chosen at the first rally and junior, Ken Bondelie was chosen at the second rally.

P.T.A. DRIVE

The Del Mar P.T.A. is now holding its annual membership drive. If enough parents join, (500 memberships) the P.T.A. will give us a free alumni dance!! (Get the hint, parents?!?!)

P.S.A.T./N.M.S.Q.T. TEST

Del Mar's P.S.A.T./N.M.S.Q.T., (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test) will be held on Saturday, Oct. 28 in the Del Mar cafetorium. The initial cost for this test is $2.50 per student.

PEP CLUB

Pep Club has started the year off big with over 100 members!! New officers for the fall semester are: Cindy LaMar, president; Donna Adams, vice-president; Stacey Slosher, secretary and Colleen Rooney, treasurer.

Pep Club held a bake sale on October 18 and 19 during both lunches. The money will go toward Pep Club supplies such as paint and paper for our signs.

This club will also be selling pillows to sit on at the games. Each girl is required to make at least three pillows and sell them for 75-cents each.

VICTORY

This is the year of the Dons!!! Yes, so far this year the Del Mar varsity football team has done great! Everyone is very happy and in good spirits at Del Mar, especially with the Big Don's most recent win over the Los Gatos Wildcats.

Seniors Jay Peryam and Fred Silva each scored a touchdown to lead Del Mar to our second win of the season! The game was exciting all the way through, especially at the end when junior, Dave Naas intercepted a pass which could have tied the score if caught by a Los Gatos player. The final score was 12-6.

If you haven't been out to one of our games yet, come to the game this Friday, Oct. 27, at 3:30 in the Del Mar bowl. The Big Dons will be playing the Blackford Braves.

The frosh-soph football team had a great win against Los Gatos on Thursday. The Little Dons played a good game and at the end everyone knew the better team and the score, Del Mar–18 and Los Gatos–6 !!

The next frosh-soph football game will be played at Blackford, Oct. 26 at 3:30.

GO DONS !!!

ACTIVITY PERIOD

Camden's newest and best program, the activity period, is now in its third week.

The activity period is at this time considered, at least, a partial success, its only fault being that there aren't enough programs to satisfy all the students.

Students and faculty are now trying to come up with your ideas so the program can continue.

The main thought behind the activity period is to get all students active in clubs and programs that were previously unavailable.

MR. OSORIO

Camden English teacher, Herm Osorio, stepped into politics in a big way. He is running for a seat against Joe Coleman in the up-coming election.

LITTLE THEATER

Camden's Little Theater put on the play "Pound on Demand" last Thursday afternoon. The Little Theater has been a great success and Mrs. Taylor has hopes for another good year.

CONCESSIONS

Camden is now looking into the purchase of two new concession machines. Like the new portable concession wagon, the machines would be used by clubs, profits going to the club itself.

One machine is for popcorn, the other is for soft drinks. The only hang-up on the machines is that Camden may not be set up to handle the power but the district electrician is investigating.

HIDDEN TALENT

Jim Purcell, Camden's student activities director, has a secret he likes to tell every one--his membership in a barbershop quartet! The other three members are: Floyd Oksen, a teacher at SSCC; Bob Browne, a fireman and Paul Congel, a pollution control employee. The quartet, known as FancyDans Barbershop Quartet, was the 1971 Northern California champ as runners-up in 1972.

They have performed in such places as Nevada. Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

SEEKS BUYER

The widow of a former businessman is seeking the buyer of a piece of property owned by him in the Campbell area.

Mrs. Beverly Hicks of Yuba City says that she knows that her husband, Robert, who died recently, sold his local real estate holdings, but she has been unable to locate the necessary papers for tax purposes.

In a recent communication to the Campbell Press, delivered by her cousin, Nancy Merrill, Mrs. Hicks appealed to the purchaser of the property to contact her. For information on how to contact Mrs. Hicks, call Nancy Merrill, proprietor of Alum Rock Kennels, 258-4707.

Happy Hollow holds yearly spook party

San Jose--Little witches and ghosts can start their haunting early this year. Happy Hollow's Annual Halloween Party Saturday, October 28, at 2 p.m. provides little spooks with the chance to try out their costumes while enjoying an afternoon of fun.

Halloween events at Happy Hollow Children's Park, Keyes and Senter Road, San Jose, include a costume contest, marshmallow roll, and pumpkin scooping contest.

Children who wish to compete in the costume contest are encouraged to use their imaginations as well as creativity to produce their goulish garb. Winners will be awarded ribbons based on their originality in several categories.

SPOOKS LURKING --- There are all kinds of "unusual" figures "hanging" around at the Kiwanis club's Hallowe'en haunted house, which is "housed" in four buildings on property located at 250 Budd Ave. The property, now owned by the Corinthian organization, was once the family home of Robert (Bobby) Schultz, now a resident of Los Gatos. Standing are a tank house, dehydrator sheds, a barn and this seldom-seen building style. The "monster" didn't say whether he'd be there when the building opens Friday for inspection.

ADVERTISING FUN --- Dina Bradley, Mike Culleton, Danny Peck and Tamra Edwards, sixth grade students at Castlemont School, don't want folks to get frightened when they see costumed figures walking by their houses on Sunday, but they do want them to "follow the parade" to the school, located on Payne Avenue near Winchester, for the school's second annual carnival.

Costume parade starts carnival

Castlemont School will hold its second annual Hallowe'en celebration on Sunday, October 29 from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The day will kick off with a parade, escorted by the Campbell Police and Fire departments, winding its way down residential streets to festivities at the school.

Standing in the courtyard will be booths, a spook house, cakewalk and sweet shoppe.

New this year is the addition of "bingo" games. Tickets instead of "hard cash" will be used. Profits from the day go to the Home and School Club which will buy additional educational equipment for the school.

BEWITCHING — The wicked witch of Lynhaven has been practicing her shrieks and cackling for the Great Pumpkin Walk October 27. She will be there watching over all the ghosts and goblins as she has for the last six years. The witch is Mrs. Gloria Allison.

The other photos are of the St. Lucy's youngsters, who entertained at the luncheon with musical and dance numbers. During their singing, the students circled the tables that were set up in Kennelly Hall where the luncheon was held.

The youngsters were directed by Sister Ann Mendiola, S.N.D., vaguely shown in the background and Sister Michela Sheehan, S.N.D., principal of St. Lucy's, in upper right photo.

TURN 'EM BACK --- Karen Lindsey, Miss Greater Los Angeles Press Club, reminds us all that we have an hour coming this weekend. Daylight saving time officially ends at 2 a.m. on Sunday, October 29, when the clocks are set back one hour. To be sure of that extra hour of sleep, it might be wise to set the clock back before one hits the sack on Saturday night, Miss Lindsey adds.
